

RAF AIR DEFENCE
RADAR MUSEUM

Salary c£19,000 : Four days per week, plus one Saturday per month and occasional Bank Holidays

The Museum is a Registered Charity, It traces the history and development of radar and the Air Defence of the United Kingdom by the Royal Air Force from the 1930's to the present day.

The Trustees are seeking to appoint a suitable person to this key position to manage the day to day operations of the museum and it's volunteer workforce. The person appointed will be an important member of the team with the ability to show innovation and the drive necessary to take the museum forward in it's future development.

The detailed job description is available on the museum website -

<http://www.radarmuseum.co.uk>

(which also provides full coverage of the museum), or by post from the museum.

Applicants are requested to send a full cv. containing details of their experience and skills; showing that they have the proven ability to meet the challenging requirements of this exciting position.

Applications should be sent to rafadm@btconnect.com or by post to:

The Chairman of Trustees
RAF Air Defence Radar Museum
RRH Neatishead
Nr. Horning, Norwich, Norfolk
NR12 8YB

Closing Date : 24th March 2017